OFF-SITE TESTING

DMV road testing for your Connecticut Driver's License is available at Tom's Driving School for an additional fee. The test is administered by an agent from the DMV. The test is limited to the first 15 applicants per test date. To be eligible to test at Tom's Driving School, you must have completed one of the following options.

Option 1: A 16 or 17 year old, who has held a learners permit for at least 4 months and has completed a full drivers education course consisting of 30 hours of classroom (including parent class) and 8 hours of on the road instruction.

Option 2: A 16 or 17 year old who has not completed a full drivers education course but has completed the mandatory 8 hour program (including parent class) and has also waited at least 6 months from permit date and has had at least 3 driving hours with Tom's Driving School.

Option 3: Anyone 18 years of age and older who stills holds a picture permit and meets the requirements in either option 1 or 2 is eligible to test at a driving school. Parent class is not required for anyone over 18 years of age.

The following would be needed in order to be placed on a test date:

- 1) Application with parent signature (Application available at Tom's)
- 2) Copy of Learner's Permit
- 3) Copy of Parent License
- 4) Check payable to Tom's Driving School
